In the fiction story the memories the author reminisces are based on sight, taste, speech and touch- yes in that order which makes you focus on the positive during hard times.

United States -- Free-Press-Release.com -- Sep 16, 2016 -- The fiction eBook has been released on September 10, 2016 by the pioneering digital publisher Free-ebooks.net in Nevada, USA.

As an instance, one of the memories she recalls is the wonderful office window view abroad when she was working in a company in affiliation with a university there for her masters studies in Software Technology.

There were colorful homes in shades of yellow, orange, brown and burgundy among green acres of green on a landscape. It was a sight to capture and feel good about it in the present by reminiscing it.

As another instance, when she was in US for further higher education, her nephew was born. Whenever she visited her sister at her place, she would carry him around in her bosom and he would sing happily in his own language. The author knows that this moment would not come to pass by again and so she preserves it in her heart and recalls it during not so good times and upgrades her happiness level.

What are the other good times she reminisces in this fiction story? What are they about? Are they anything like you already experienced? Wouldn't you like to learn more? For a fabulous wholesome read, please visit:
