

A Splendid Fictions EBook, "Short Fictions You Would Like to Read" Newly Released on Free-eBooks.net by Rosina S Khan

This eBook contains the stories of two ladies and two gentlemen who always give priority to family and soar high.

United States -- Free-Press-Release.com -- Sep 14, 2018 -- The book goes on to describe the first fiction about a girl called Shabnam who is adamant about marrying her high school boyfriend against the will of her Dad but while she does have fabulous times, after the birth of their daughter, they have heated arguments which end up in their divorce. By and by, her daughter starts growing and her young cousin brother plays pranks on both of them and make them smile and laugh. Where will this lead to? To read more, get the whole book from the links provided below.

Fiction 2 describes a boy from a small hometown where he spends his teenage and adolescence until he becomes an adult and goes to the city to find work. After many hard attempts he lands on his dream job and gets a home also from his work caterers. He thinks he has everything but still feels an emptiness inside. Guess what his parents tell him when he consults them with his problem! To read more get a free copy of the book from the links provided below.

Fiction 3 presents Neela's brother and sister-in-law coming to their village during war time to take refuge. The sister-in-law goes through many hardships and how she survives and overcomes them all gallantly shows that she is a real woman. To read more, grab the book from the links provided below.

The fourth and the last (but certainly not the least) fiction is about a village guy Simon who is put in marriage forcibly by his Dad with the widowed wife of his second elder brother. He doesn't consent to it and spends life aloof in different villages and spending the nights in homes of his friends. Finally after five whole years, he meets his wife in a relative's wedding. He looks at her for a long time. Guess what happens next? You wouldn't know if you don't get hold of the free eBook!
